

Roma

Looks at the life of an early-1970s, middle-class family in Mexico City through the eyes of their indigenous domestic worker who keeps the household running

Available on: DVD

Real women have curves

Ana has come to terms with her weight, unlike her mother, and wants to go to college rather than work in the family's dress-making business as her mother wishes

Available on: DVD

Under the same moon

After his grandmother dies, a Mexican boy attempts to cross the border to the United States to reunite with his mother who has been working as a maid

Available on: DVD

I the Worst of All

Based on Nobel prize-winner Octavio Paz's novel, director Maria Luisa Bemberg's feminist masterpiece is based on a true story. Assumpta Serna stars as Sister Juana Ines de la Cruz, who enters the convent to pursue her love of writing and goes on to gain international renown. However, this is the height of the Inquisition, and her intellectual prowess leads to clashes with the Archbishop of Mexico. Dominique Sanda costars as the beautiful new Vicereine, who becomes her protector and erotic muse

Available on: The Shelf, Kanopy, DVD

SONOMA COUNTY LIBRARY

sonomalibrary.org

Brought to you by the Measure Y sales tax

Celebrating Latin American Roots in Film

Celebración de las raíces Latinoamericanas en el cine

3 beauties

A mother's obsession with turning one of her daughters into a beauty queen leads to competition among them

Available on: Kanopy, DVD

Song without a name

Based on true events, after an indigenous Andean woman gives birth in a downtown Lima clinic and her baby is taken from her, she approaches a journalist who uncovers a web of fake clinics and abductions

Available on: Kanopy, DVD

Sin nombre

A Honduran teenager joins her father on the dangerous journey across Latin America to reach the United States, meeting a young Mexican gang member along the way, running from his past

Available on: DVD

Instructions not included

A single father finds his life turned upside down when the birth mother of his six-year-old daughter turns up

Available on: DVD

City of God

Follows three boys from one of the most brutal, violent, and corrupt slums in Rio de Janeiro from the 1970s to the 1990s, a period when the only spark of hope comes from the story of a boy who wants to be a photographer

Available on: DVD

Cetaceans

Clara and Alejandro are moving to a new home, but soon he goes on a work trip and she stays alone, surrounded by closed boxes. This mess compels her to live new experiences that will lead her to question the closed and hermetic world where she lives.

Available on: The Shelf

El huevo del dinosaurio

What the world expects of us is not always what we can give it. Sometimes the world expects little and we can do much more. This is a playful and poetic exploration of a group of artists with disabilities.

Available on: The Shelf

Miss

Robert is over 30 years old and lives obsessed with the idea of breaking a world record, whatever it may be. Take care of a luxurious suburban home while working as an extra on commercials. One day Robert meets Laura; he follows her, looks for her and they strike up a strange friendship, so he decides he wants to break that record with her.

Available on: The Shelf

Neruda

After Chilean poet and communist Pablo Neruda criticizes the president, he becomes the target of a manhunt led by a fascist police prefect and needs to go into hiding

Available on: Kanopy, DVD

The Maid

When Raquel's place in the Valdes family -- for whom she's provided 23 years of maid service -- is threatened after they hire more help, she decides to do something about it.

Available on: The Shelf, Kanopy, DVD