The key from Spain: Flory Jagoda and her music
by Debbie Levy

Just as her ancestors were forced to leave Spain during the Inquisition, Flory flees Europe for a new life in the United States, bringing with her a precious harmonika and a passion for Ladino music.

Miriam at the river
by Jane Yolen

Seven-year-old Miriam places her baby brother’s basket in the Nile River, watches the Pharaoh’s daughter draw him out and name him Moses, and ponders a vision of other water parting. Includes note on the biblical story on which this is based.

Gittel’s journey: an Ellis Island story
by Leslea Newman

“Brings to life a not too distant history of immigration to Ellis Island. When it’s time for nine-year-old Gittel and her mother to leave their homeland behind and go to America for the promise of a new life, a health inspection stops any chance of Gittel’s mother joining her daughter on the voyage. Knowing she may never see her mother again, Gittel must find the courage within herself to leave her family behind.”

The cholent brigade
by Michael Herman

When Monty Nudelman throws his back out shoveling neighborhood sidewalks and driveways, his neighbors help him in return by sending their children with hot bowls of stew for his Shabbat lunch.

Celebrate Jewish Heritage, Culture & Authors
Ages 0-8

SONOMA COUNTY LIBRARY
sonomalibrary.org
Yaffa and Fatima: shalom, salaam
by Fawzia Gilani-Williams
E GILANI-WILLIAMS
"Yaffa and Fatima live on neighboring date farms. When very little rain leads to a poor harvest, both women go to extra measures to make sure that their neighbor doesn’t go hungry."

Good night, laila tov
by Laurel Snyder
E SNYDER
A family trip becomes an adventure of discovery for two curious siblings who explore the natural wonders of the seashore, woods and fields while their parents observe the Jewish tikkun olam tree-planting tradition to offer thanks for all they have received. By the author of Baxter, the Pig Who Wanted to Be Kosher.

A moon for Moe and Mo
by Jane Breskin Zalben
E BRESKIN
Moses Feldman and Mohammed Hassan both live on Flatbush Avenue, but when they meet at the grocery store they quickly become best friends, sharing a picnic while their families prepare for the holidays of Rosh Hashanah and Ramadan.

A scarf for Keiko
by Ann Malaspina
E MALASPINA
In Little Tokyo, Los Angeles, in 1942, after Sam’s Japanese neighbor, Keiko, is sent to an internment camp with her family, he makes a special effort to send her a gesture of friendship.

The blessing cup
by Patricia Polacco
E POLACCO
A companion to the best-selling The Keeping Quilt describes how young Anna, a girl from an early 20th-century Russian Jewish family, moves to America and brings a beautiful china tea set that symbolizes God’s blessings, family history and a plentiful life that reaches through subsequent generations.

Lola Levine and the vacation dream
by Monica Brown
E BROWN
When her father has a successful art show, Lola is ecstatic to learn that their family will visit her favorite aunt in Peru, where she and Ben discover the wonderful adventures to be found in Lima while struggling to stay out of trouble. Simultaneous and eBook.

Tikkun Olam Ted
by Vivian Newman
E NEWMAN
For spending his days on such good deeds as recycling, feeding birds, working in the garden, and donating items to others, a young boy has earned the nickname, “Tikkun Olam Ted.”

I’m sad
by Michael Ian Black
E BLACK
Flamingo learns that it is okay to be sad sometimes and that her friends, the little girl and Potato, will stand by her no matter how she feels.

The tree in the courtyard: looking through Anne Frank’s window
by Jeff Gottesfeld
E GOTTESFELD
Told from the perspective of the real-world tree outside Anne Frank’s annex window, a powerful introduction to the young Holocaust heroine’s story describes its witness to her diary writings, her arrest by Nazi forces and her father’s return after the war.

An egg for Shabbat
by Miriòk Śenir
E SENIR
Young Ben, eager to help his mother, rushes to the chicken pen Sunday through Friday mornings and each day learns a new lesson about carrying an egg.