Arab Arab All Year Long!
by Cathy Camper J 390 CAMPER
This nonfiction book celebrates the beauty and diversity of Arab life and childhood enthusiasm throughout the entire year as busy kids take part in traditions old and new.

Not Yet: the Story of an Unstoppable Ice Skater
by Zahra Lari J 796.912 LARI
This story follows five-time Emirati National Champion Zahra Lari, the first figure skater to compete internationally in a hijab, whose mantra “not yet” gave her the self-confidence she needed to skate.

We Are Palestinian: a Celebration of Culture and Tradition by Reem Kassis J 956.94 KASSIS
A stunning non-fiction children's book celebrating everything Palestinian! From culture and food, to music and literature, We Are Palestinian is a celebration of Palestinian heritage.

Tagging Freedom
by Rhonda Roumani J ROUMANI
Set in the early days of the Syrian Civil War, cousins Kareem and Samira living in Massachusetts navigate the growing conflict in Syria, new friendships, and the use of art to express themselves.

A Rover's Story
by Jasmine Warga J SF WARGA
Built to explore Mars, Resilience begins to develop human-like feelings as he learns from the NASA scientists who assembled him, and as he blasts off and explores Mars, Resilience must overcome different obstacles as he explores the red planet.

SONOMA COUNTY LIBRARY
sonomalibrary.org
Brought to you by the Measure Y sales tax

2024 Edition. Books available to checkout or request at the SCL.
Sharing = تقاسم
by Patricia Billings
Delightful and meaningful, this bilingual book helps young children enrich their vocabulary as they learn to describe the ways that we share in two languages. Yusaeid hadha alkitab thunayiya allughati, almunbah walhadif, al'atfal alsighar ealaa 'iithra' mufradatihim 'athna' taealumihim wasf alturuq alati natasharak biha fi luqhtayni.

Big red lollipop
by Rukhsana Khan
Forced to bring her little sister along to a birthday party, Rubina is mortified when her younger sibling demands to win every game and steals Rubina's red lollipop party favor.

Muhammad Najem, War Reporter: how One Boy put the Spotlight on Syria
by Muhammad Najem
Reporting on the war in Syria using social media, 15-year-old Muhammad, whose father was killed in a bombing while praying, reveals the truth about what families like his were enduring, documenting the humanity of the Syrian people, and making the world take notice.

Sadiq and the Perfect Play
by Siman Nuurali
When Sadiq and his friends form a theater club Sadiq, as director, thinks he must do everything until the director of his big sister Aliya's show tells him about delegating. Includes glossary, discussion questions, and writing prompts.

The Red Pencil
by Andrea Davis Pinkney
Lyrical verses tell the story of young Amira, whose dreams of attending school are shattered by a Janjaweed attack on her Sudanese village and a forced flight to safety.

Where Butterflies Fill the Sky: a Story of Immigration, Family, and Finding Home
by Zahra Marwan
When she and her family must move to a new desert, Zahra is surprised to find some familiar elements amid all the newness, and in time, a new kind of magic that makes it feel like home.

Eleven Words for Love: a Journey Through Arabic Expressions of Love
by Randa Abdel-Fattah
Fleeing their homeland, a Palestinian family carries a single suitcase in which the contents evoke 11 Arabic names for love, in this moving scrapbook that explores universal bonds of family, loyalty, friendship.

Diez Maneras de Escuchar la Nieve
por Cathy Camper
Mientras camina hacia la casa de su abuela para ayudar a hacer warak enab, Lina descubre muchas formas de escuchar la nieve, desde el chirrido de una pala en la acera hasta los silenciosos golpes de los muñecos de nieve. Also available in English.

Deep in the Sahara
by Kelly Cunnane
An Arab girl of the Sahara who wants to wear a malafa, the veiled dress worn by her mother and older sister, learns that the garment represents beauty, mystery, tradition, belonging, and faith.

Egyptian Lullaby
by Zeena M. Pliska
In this love letter to Cairo, a young child is sung a lullaby by her great-aunt who paints a vivid portrait of the ancient city as the child drifts off to sleep.